Dear parents/carers,

This week has given the Year 6 children an opportunity to show how the school values of perseverance, compassion and courage flows through all that they do at school. They have tackled this year's SATS in such a positive way. These tests are very challenging and the children can all be very proud of what they have achieved this week and of course during their whole primary education. Thank you to Mrs Phillips and Tracey who made sure all the children had a delicious breakfast and were in a relaxed frame of mind before taking the tests.

Mental Health Awareness Week

This week has been Mental health Awareness Week. This year's theme, 'Community', focuses on how connection and belonging support mental health and wellbeing.

A strong support network can make a real difference to how we feel. Whether at school, at home or in wider social circles, feeling part of a community can provide comfort, encouragement and a sense of purpose.

These themes have been explored in collective worship and lessons in the classroom. We have discussed how our school has a strong sense of community and that because we follow the Hi5 Promise our community is cohesive and one that we can all be proud to belong to. If you would like resources to support your child's mental health please see here:

Please do stay after the dancing and enjoy the stalls to help us raise much needed funds for the school. Please can all children bring their May sticks to school for our practice on Monday 19th please. Thank you 😊

Flower Sticks

If you have any questions about flower sticks please come and ask at the Office, Louise and Jackie will be more than happy to offer advice. Also a parent with children who have left the school has kindly offered to donate previously used flower sticks to the school. If anyone has any unused flower sticks they can bare to part with we would be more than happy to accept a donation.

Maths Challenge Day at Chandlings

Five Year 4 children had the opportunity to take part in a Maths Challenge Day at Chandlings.

Our team did a great job solving all kinds of maths problems which were very challenging. Some quotes from the team about the day.

'It was fun activities to do with maths. It wasn't just adding and subtracting but all sorts of different maths.'

'It was hard but great fun. It was party themed and we needed to use our common sense to work out the problems.'

Moonstone- From Miss Phillips

The Y6 children have worked incredibly hard this week, in their SATs tests. We are incredibly proud of their attitude, positivity and resilience. They have worked incredibly hard and we are so proud of them all. They really enjoyed breakfast club this week, enjoying pancakes and maple syrup, bacon baps, waffles and sausage baps - served with fresh fruit every day. It was so nice to see them laughing and joking with each other in the morning and really helped to relax them. The Y5 children have been working very hard all week on an independent topic of their choice. We've really enjoyed hearing about their hobbies and interests; I know a lot more about Roblox than I did before! They have been very confident in presenting their work to us all; we have been very proud of what they've achieved.

- Setting up stalls prior to May Fair starting (from 12.30 onwards)
